

Our favourite beaches:

Here we anchor in close to the beach, some times almost close enough to walk ashore (well, in chest deep water)
This enables easy access to the beach in kayaks, by swimming, or Grandpa and Grandma can land in the rubber dinghy.

We set up big beach umbrellas, deckchairs and a cooler full of beer so that the Grandparents can sit in comfort while the kids cavort.

